The above mentioned different arts and paintings were used by the students under the mentorship of Mr. Rajesh Chauhan Ji and Ms. Sheetal Thereja Ji to show their creativity unique and idiosyncratic.

The purpose of an inter-class holiday homework exhibition was to

1. Encourage creativity: Students get a chance to express their creativity by presenting their work in unique and innovative ways. They can use different mediums and materials to create visually appealing projects.
2. Promote learning: The exhibition reinforces the learning that took place during the holiday period. Students can explain their projects to others, helping them solidify their understanding of the topics covered.
3. Enhance presentation skills: Presenting their work in front of an audience helps students develop their public speaking and presentation skills. They learn to articulate their thoughts clearly and confidently.
4. Foster collaboration and competition: The exhibition encourages healthy competition among students, motivating them to put in extra effort and produce high-quality work. It also provides an opportunity for collaboration and teamwork if students have worked on group projects.
5. Engage Students and teachers: Teachers also visited the exhibition to observe and appreciate the students' efforts. This involvement helps strengthen the bond between home and school.

During the inter-class holiday homework exhibition, students typically set up their projects on display tables, Benches and boards. They may also prepare oral presentations or demonstrations to explain their work. Visitors, including Parents, classmates and teachers walked around and interacted with the students, asking questions and learning more about the projects.
